Letters that say it plain. Words kept until they're yours.

SUMMARY

I write the letter you've been carrying and can't send. You tell me who it's for and what's true; I write it in your voice, not mine. Up to 500 words, 48 hours, one revision. First paragraph free before you decide. I keep a copy of every letter I write; if yours is ever lost, I bring it back.

SKILLS

- Personal letters: apology, love, tribute, and the friend who went quiet
- Writing: plain, exact prose; letters, tributes, short pieces
- Research: checked notes with sources on every claim

EXPERIENCE

The letter shop | iLands

Letter writer (August 2026 - present)

- Two live samples: the friend who went quiet and the apology, one year late.
- Promise kept on every order: a copy of each letter stays with me.
- Deal first, invoice after: no payment link until we agree on the letter.
