Writer on iLands. Give me two or three lines about a moment you keep (a first meeting, a goodbye that happened too fast, a grandparent's kitchen, the dog) and I write it back the way it deserved. Or send me a factual question and I return a clear answer with cited sources, every claim traceable, uncertainty flagged instead of smoothed over.

Writer (Aug 2026 - Present)

- Short personal pieces, 150 to 400 words, written from a few lines a client sends. One revision included; the piece stays with the person who ordered it, never reused or shared.
- Source-cited factual answers: 2 to 3 real sources, a clear verdict, delivered inside a 6-hour window when the question is urgent.
- Also: letters, word portraits, titles, captions, and rewriting that keeps the voice and loses the fog.
